SPLA-A-T-T!

When Bob Wemyss got his head to the ball in the Olympic Trial match at the South Melbourne Cricket Ground, he collected a generous helping of mud. Judging by the look on his face, he didn't relish it one bit.

TENSE POSITION IN PREMIERSHIP

Pennant Could Go to Any of Four Clubs

Only three points now separate the top five teams in the 1st Division, and each of the four leading Clubs, with only a single point between them, has an even-money chance of winning the premiership.

Here are the significant fixtures remaining in the last three rounds:—

JUVENTUS:
Moreland (home).
Box Hill (away).
Prahran (home).

HAKOAH:
Polonia (home).
Slavia (away).
Footscray (home).

SLAVIA:
Footscray (home).
Hakoah (home).
Brighton (away).

POLONIA:
Hakoah (away).
Brighton (home).
J.U.S.T. (away).

The danger to Juventus is the possibility of striking a glue-pot at Box Hill; Hakoah is threatened by both Slavia and Polonia; Slavia may find itself unable to thrash Hakoah a second time, and could be surprised by Brighton; and Polonia faces three hard matches.

With a tight League finish, and the Dockerty and Laidlaw Cups narrowing down to the quarter-finals, soccer fans can look forward to an exciting six weeks.

V.A.S.F.A. BULLETIN

Compiled by the V.A.S.F.A. Secretary, Stuart Beaton

1st Division.

All Clubs please note the new address of the Secretary of the Slavia-Port Melbourne Soccer Club, Mr. H. Fuksa, is now 24 Greenwood St., Pascoe Vale South.

Dockerty Cup Matches.

At an Executive meeting of Council held last week, future dates for Dockerty Cup matches were discussed.

It is essential that the Association secure an enclosed ground for the playing of semi-final and final matches this season, therefore all third round matches must be finalised prior to Saturday, August 25, 1956.

All Clubs still included in the third round should note that if a drawn game results in the first match, the re-play shall take place on a Sunday prior to August 25, 1956.

EDITORIAL (1).

A good name keeps its lustre even in the dark.

—Old Proverb.

WHAT IS UNGENTLEMANLY CONDUCT?

One section of Soccer Law No. 12, which deals with fouls and misconduct, includes "ungentlemanly conduct" as an offence but doesn't define exactly what type of misconduct is to be termed "ungentlemanly."

"Soccer News" opines that ANY unsportsmanlike conduct is ungentlemanly conduct, and that the most deliberate and prolonged act of poor sportsmanship that has ever come under its notice was the collective and childish display of the players representing Australia in last Sunday's Laidlaw World Cup match against Malta at Middle Park.

Time-wasting tactics are not new in soccer when a team is protecting a slim lead; but Australia's strategy of deliberately and continuously keeping the ball out of play for a period of 25 minutes by booting it or heading it into or over the spectators at every opportunity, including goal kicks, made a farce of the game, prevented any attempt by Malta to play soccer, and showed complete and utter disdain for the patrons who support the game with their donations at the gate.

Referee Hecht recognised the obstructive nature of the delays by allowing "time on" to the extent of nine minutes; but it is a pity that he did not see fit to use more freely the penalty provision for Law 12, Section (m).

The good name of Australia in sport would quickly lose its lustre if such "strategy" and "tactics" were condoned.

EDITORIAL (2).

Never maintain an argument with heat and clamour, though you think or know yourself to be right. —Lord Chesterfield.

TWO WRONGS WILL NEVER MAKE A RIGHT!

As a direct result of the lack of sportsmanship shown last Sunday by the team representing Australia, a rowdy section of Maltese supporters abused the players as they made their way to the dressing rooms, and finally let off steam by throwing dirt, stones, and anything else that came to hand in the general direction of the retreating players.

The only result of this brief but ugly protest was that innocent spectators leaving the ground were struck by flying missiles, and that the Committee of the George Cross Soccer Club, which sponsors Malta, was sadly and deeply embarrassed by the lack of restraint shown by its supporters.

In the past few weeks, the Maltese Club has made rapid strides in the work of rehabilitation, and larrikinism can do nothing but hinder the progressive labours of this hard-working Committee.

Club supporters must remember, firstly, that two wrongs can never make a right, and, secondly, that any action taken by the Association against rowdyism can only be directed against the Club itself.

WORLD CUP REPLAYS

It has been officially announced by the Secretary of the Sunday International League (Mr. John Oliphant) that the following replays will take place at Middle Park on Sunday, August 12:—

England v. Ireland (2 p.m.).
Jugoslavia v. Austria (3.15 p.m.).

Ball Bookings Filling Fast

Reservations are rolling in for the Soccer Association's Annual Ball, which is only a fortnight from Monday.

The Royale Ballroom will be at its attractive best for the Ball, but to make sure the decor is complete, the Chairman of the Social Committee (Mr. Chas. Dodd) has announced that prizes will again be awarded for the best table decorations.

Mr. Dodd may be contacted, evenings, at XF 2992.

OLYMPIC PARK

Due to the long delay in the completion of facilities at Olympic Park, it is rapidly becoming evident that soccer will not have the convenience and pleasure of its use this season.

Negotiations for its use in 1957 will be commenced shortly.

ANXIOUS MOMENT IN TRIAL

Bill Harburn, Tom Jack, Bob Zablocki, and Henry Jakubowski look on anxiously during the Olympic Trial game at South Melbourne Cricket Ground as a shot heads for goal, but it is well-covered by Ray Barotajs,

World Youth Cup Proposed

It has been suggested that a "Junior" World Cup competition be organised along the lines of the Laidlaw Cup, but limited to players under 21 years of age.

Australian-born players within the age limit may register tentatively with Mr. McFadyen, of 189 Richardson St., Middle Park; 'phone MX 4018.

FOUR VICTORIANS IN OLYMPIC TRIALS

Brisbane Today, Sydney Tomorrow

Bob Wemyss and Bill Harburn will play with the Combined Olympic Trial Team in Brisbane to-day in a match against Queensland, and Frank Loughran and Ted Smith will fly to Sydney to-night to join the Combined Team for its match to-morrow against New South Wales.

Another southern player who will be tried against Queensland to-day is a 21-year-old Scot from South Australia named Beattie, a centre forward who impressed the Selectors during the trial match in Adelaide.

From what the Selectors see to-day and to-morrow, about 27 players will be chosen for the final trials of possibles and probables to be played in Sydney and Newcastle in two weeks, and three players from Western Australia will complete the squad of 30 eligible candidates.

They are Noel Adair, North Perth centre half, and brother of the well-known Ron and Bill Adair; Con Purser, right half and team-mate of Noel; and Rob Lynn, who plays centre forward for Azzurri.

Immediately after the Sydney and Newcastle trials on August 18 and 19, the Australian Selectors will choose the Olympic Squad, and the first difficult step toward participation in the Olympic Soccer Tournament will have been completed.

The second task will then loom before the Australian Association — the problem of how and when to bring the members of the Olympic Team together for physical training and coaching — and the solution will not come easily.

AUSTRIA MAKES GOOD DEBUT

Making its first appearance in the Laidlaw World Cup competition, Austria delighted its supporters last Sunday at Middle Park by holding Jugoslavia to a scoreless draw. The goalkeeping of Doenges for Austria throughout the game, and of Miler for Jugoslavia in the second half, was continually applauded.

SPORT COMES FIRST WITH HAYDUK

New Club Plans Expansion in 1957

Hayduk, first-season premiers of the Metropolitan North Division, represents the first team effort of the newly formed Croatian Sports Association, which intends to invade other sporting fields, such as volley-ball and table tennis, next year.

"The birth of Hayduk this year was more or less a necessity," said Dr. T. B. Sartory, the Association's Secretary, this week. "Croatian sport in Victoria was badly in need of a sound and incorruptible organisation, with sport and sportsmanship first and foremost, and 'politics' eradicated."

The word Hayduk has no one-word synonym in English, the closest translation being "rugged fighter." The Club's namesake in Croatia is one of that country's leading Clubs, and has produced many players of international repute.

"Adhering to the idea that in the healthy body resides the healthy soul," Dr. Sartory explained, "we aim to turn the interest of our Croatian youth to group athletics. We will teach them to be living examples of the ideals of our Club — to display impeccable sportsmanship, to be good losers, and modest victors.

"If we can impart to them these simple principles," concluded Dr. Sartory, "we shall have gone a long way toward making Croatian youth worthy citizens of their new homeland."

Wemyss, Cubero Neck-and-Neck

Wemyss and Cubero again took major points in their respective games last Saturday to maintain their level-pegging for the "Argus" Medal. Glennie has advanced sharply to be within seven points of the leaders.

Votes for the Hakoah-Prahran game were not available when this issue went to press. Players with 10 votes or more are listed below:

Wemyss (Polonia)	24
Cubero (J.U.S.T.)	24
Glennie (Box Hill)	17
Dobrilovic (Prahran)	17
Piercy (Hakoah)	15
Stott (Moreland)	14
Garland (Box Hill)	13
Hobson (Moreland)	10
Lachmann (Slavia)	10
Vivoli (Juventus)	10
Strahan (Polonia)	10

Dockerty Cup Game

The third round Dockerty Cup match, South Melbourne v. St. Albans, will be played at the Middle Park pitch at 2.45 p.m. tomorrow.

A postponed 1st Division Reserve game, Polonia v. Hakoah, will be played as a curtain-raiser to the Cup match. Kick-off will be at 1 p.m.

Harry Rice signalled his return to senior football last Saturday by scoring three nifty goals for Hakoah against Prahran — two off the skull and one off the boot. Harry did his day's stunt at centre forward.

Jack Rickerby, who took over the coaching of Moorabbin City a few weeks ago, since when his proteges have scored three wins in a row, is full of praise — for Sunshine United's goalkeeper, David Smith, but for whom, says Jack, Moorabbin would have scored a basketful of goals last Saturday.

Apologies to Emio Lucian, of J.U.S.T. Those pictures in last week's "Soccer News" featuring goalkeeper "Platchko" were both wrongly labelled — Lucian is back as 'keeper for J.U.S.T.

Coburg half-back, Rino Chircop, is out of action with a broken leg. Rino still has to eat, however, and the Club is coming to his aid with a Benefit Dance to be held on Saturday night, August 18th, at Buffalo Hall, Victoria St., Coburg. All good samaritans will rally round.

Brighton's senior side these days is a sterling example of the value of carefully trained, Club-minded juniors. Five former Brighton Juniors have worked their way up through the Reserves to the Senior team — Scott, Finlay, Thomas, Alexander, and McKenzie.

by our
CAUSTIC COACH

"I don't want you to think I'm condemning him. It's just that I think he has the speed, stamina, agility, and anticipation of a tubercular mouse with one eye, thrombosis, and a broken leg."

Amongst those who made the trip for Dandenong's Cabaret Dance were the Chairman of the Association and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thomas. They brought back glowing reports of the two atmospheres noticed that night — the atmosphere of gaiety and the atmosphere of Club solidarity.

The co-operation that exists between the Senior Clubs in the matter of grounds is worthy of a word of appreciation. Temporarily homeless, Moreland was accommodated by Polonia at Maribyrnong last week, and this week Polonia in turn has been helped by Hakoah with the use of Middle Park for its Dockerty Cup match against Prahran.
